

NZ TELEHEALTH
FORUM & RESOURCE CENTRE

YOU'RE INVITED TO A TELEHEALTH WEBINAR:

Introduction to telehealth in cancer care

THURSDAY
24 MARCH
7-8PM

MODERATOR:
Sasha Webb

*Equity Lead, Te Aho
o Te Kahu*

Providing high quality cancer care for all patients no matter who they are or where they live has never been more important, particularly during a pandemic and this significant time of change in healthcare in Aotearoa New Zealand.

This month's webinar is moderated by Sasha Webb, equity lead at Te Aho o Te Kahu, who is passionate about health equity and the gains achieved via telehealth. She is accompanied by a line-up of panellists who will share their knowledge and experience, and focus on:

- How telehealth is currently being used in public, private and community cancer care settings
- A new breast cancer telemonitoring pilot
- And discuss what changes are needed to better support cancer clinicians using telehealth

PANELLISTS

Adele Gautier Research & Strategic Programmes, Breast Cancer Foundation NZ

Elinor Millar Public Health Physician, Te Aho o Te Kahu

Iain Ward Canterbury Radiation Oncologist; Co-chair, Asia-Pacific Radiation Oncology Special Interest Group

Jo Stafford Former advisor to Whakarongorau and current advisor to Mercy Ascot; member of He Ara Tangata consumer reference group

Marie Wales Supportive Care Manager, Cancer Society Queenstown

REGISTRATIONS REQUIRED

Please use the following link: telehealth.org.nz/cancercare