

NZ TELEHEALTH
FORUM & RESOURCE CENTRE

YOU'RE INVITED TO A
TELEHEALTH WEBINAR:
SCOTLAND
TELEHEALTH

THURSDAY 1ST OCTOBER 7PM - 8PM

MODERATOR:
Dr Ruth Large

*Emergency Physician
& Rural Hospitalist,
Chair of NZ Telehealth
Leadership Group*

Moderated by Dr Ruth Large, a panel of experts from Scotland will share their experiences and thoughts on how telehealth is being implemented in Scotland and what benefits and challenges they are experiencing in primary and secondary healthcare.

Following Nessa Barry and Morag Hearty's presentation, our New Zealand panellists will lead discussion and pose questions on what New Zealand can learn from Scottish telehealth.

SCOTLAND PANELLISTS:

Nessa Barry

Knowledge Exchange Manager, NHS National Services Scotland

Morag Hearty

National Strategic Lead, Remote Health Pathways, TEC, Scottish Government

NEW ZEALAND PANELLISTS:

Dr Steve Earnshaw

Chief Clinical Information Officer, Wairarapa DHB

Jon Herries

Emerging Health Technology & Innovation, Data& Digital, Ministry of Health

Alex Forsyth

Director, Allied Health Scientific and Technical, Whanganui DHB

Dr Sam Murton

President, Royal NZ College of General Practitioners

REGISTRATIONS REQUIRED

Please use the following link: telehealth.org.nz/Scotland